Strategic Plan - Dedication to Fiscal Responsibility

The City's 2022-2024 Strategic Plan lists the number one goal as maintaining a strong financial position for the City. The second goal is to have excellent communication with citizens, employees and other stakeholders. These goals guide the City Council each budget session to ensure that quality services are provided to residents and businesses in the most cost-effective manner.

Compliance with all Laws Regarding Capital Improvement Planning, Proposed Tax Rate, Issuance of Loan Notes and City Budget

The City adheres to all laws pertaining to public notice of hearings regarding Capital Improvement Planning, Proposed Tax Rate, Issuance of Loan Notes and City Budget. In addition to publishing notice in The Clinton Herald, as required by law, the City posts public hearing notices under the "Latest News" portion of the City website, under the Property Tax Levy and Bonding (by year) page of the Finance Department, as well as on its Facebook, Instagram and Twitter platforms.
